2 | YOUTH POWER (YUVA SHAKTI)

Shaping India's destiny through harnessing our Yuva Shakti.

This section focuses on the youth who will shape our future. The exhibits presented here will bring into spotlight the enterprise of youth today and the leaders of tomorrow.

3 | WOMEN POWER (NARI SHAKTI) ACHIEVEMENTS@75

Highlighting our progress in the last 75 y or all

As an ancient civilization with a cultural legacy of 5000 years, and as an independent modern nation for 75 years, India and its people have come a long way, especially the women. Worshipped as Shakti, this section marks the passage of time, celebrating the collective achievements, and milestones of India's women through these years. The exhibits depicted here will showcase women empowerment.

4 | NATURE AND WILDLIFE

Celebrating India's rich reserve of nature and wildlife

India has been blessed with a diverse and varied topography, from mountains to deserts and from lakes and rivers to forests. Here the focus is on the rich diversity of India's nature and abundant wildlife.

5 | CULTURE AND HISTORY

Celebrating India's unity in diversity

Even as the focus shifts to the Amrit Kaal, it is the time to remember our glorious past. India is an ancient civilization with a cultural legacy of 5000 years and is an independent modern nation for 75 years. India as Bharat has lived on through different kingdoms, cultures and robust commercial activities strengthening and joining various kingdoms to form Bharat.

The focus of this section will be to showcase India's cultural heritage and our history, through exhibits, that have been the foundation of India's unique contribution to the world.

About Philately

The art of collecting stamps, philately, is King of hobbies and hobby of the Kings. It is a window for enriching our knowledge of history, culture, art, nature and celebrating human achievements.

In modern times, when Internet and mobile phones took over our lives, for a brief period, philately found itself relegated to a quaint hobby. However, it is through this very Internet, philately is once again gaining traction. Online philatelic marketplaces have come up across the world and have made it much easier for collectors to participate enthusiastically.

To keep this enriching hobby alive, Department of Posts has an exclusive Philately Promotion Programme. Through this programme, Department of Posts has been organizing philatelic exhibitions at different levels – state, national and international. The objective is to educate the general public, children and youth in particular, about the culture, heritage, history and famous personalities and also to encourage philately as a hobby.

Being conducted under the aegis of Department of Posts, AMRITPEX 2023 aims to be a platform to introduce a whole new generation about philately and its delightful charms. In addition to the 1400 frames and 50 dealer booths, the exhibition will also include digital exhibits and interactive activities for children and the young. To increase footfall and make it more convenient, remote registration for participants and dealers is planned. An interactive website for the exhibition will also be in place for those digitally equipped.

About Department of Posts

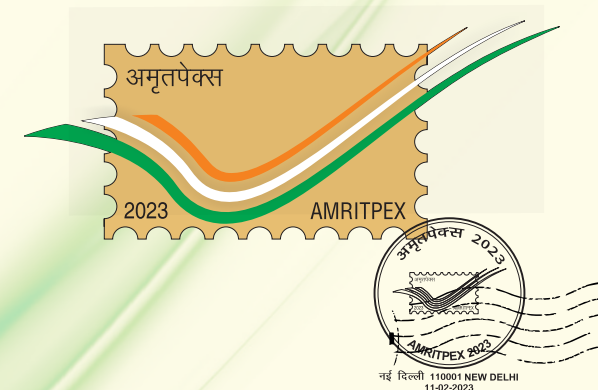

For more than 150 years, the Department of Posts (DoP) has been the backbone of the country's communication and has played a crucial role in the country's social and economic development.
